12. RELIANCE ON ADVICE

The Board is expected to exercise a high standard of commercial judgement.

In doing so, Directors are entitled to rely on the honesty, integrity and advice of Oceania's management team and its external advisors and auditors, but must not substitute reliance on the advice of management and third parties for the Board's own due consideration of the issues presented to it for review and approval.

A Director may only rely on others, as described above, if the Director:

- (a) Acts in good faith;
- (b) Makes proper enquiry where the need for enquiry is indicated by the circumstances; and
- (c) Has no knowledge that such reliance is unwarranted.

In discharging their respective duties, individual Directors may (with the prior approval of the Chairperson) engage and consult with professional advisors from time to time, with any costs being met by Oceania.

Management should provide information of sufficient content, quality and timeliness to the Board to enable it to effectively discharge its duties.

The Board may rely upon information provided by Board Committees and their members in relation to matters within that Board Committee's delegated responsibility, provided that it has evaluated the information and is not aware of any reasonable basis upon which to question its accuracy.

13. INDUCTION AND TRAINING

The Board will ensure that any new Directors are appropriately introduced to management and the business, that all Directors are acquainted with relevant industry knowledge and receive copies of appropriate company documents to enable them to perform their role.

with individual Directors to evaluate and discuss performance and professional development.

15. DISCLOSURE OF INTEREST/CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

In order that the Board may assess Directors' independence, each Director is required to disclose:

All disclosures of interest (including the nature and extent of any interest) are recorded in the interests register of the company by the Company Secretary and tabled at each Board meeting.

It is expected that all Directors will be sensitive to actual and perceived conflicts of interest that may arise and they are expected to give ongoing consideration to this issue.

The Directors will minimise the possibility of a conflict of interest by restricting their involvement in businesses that could lead to a conflict of interest. Where a conflict of interest does arise, then Director will:

- (a) excuse himself or herself from the relevant discussions; and
- (b) in accordance with the NZX Listing Rules, not exercise his or her right to vote in respect of such matter, unless it is a matter in respect of which Directors are expressly required by the Companies Act 1993 to sign a certificate, or relates to the grant of indemnity under section 162 of that Act.

16. REMUNERATION

The Directors' remuneration is paid in the form of Directors' fees. The Board may determine that additional allowances be paid to a Director, as appropriate, to reflect additional services provided to Oceania by that Director. The total fees available to be paid to Directors is subject to shareholder approval.

No retirement allowances are payable to Directors.

The Directors are entitled to reimbursement of all reasonable and properly documented expenses associated with undertaking their duties as a Director. All Directors' expenses must be approved by the Chairperson of the Board. The Chairperson's expenses must be approved by the chairperson of the Audit Committee.

The Directors will not offer gratuities or other personal rewards designed to influence business transactions.

17. DIRECTOR INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE

All Directors have the benefit of an indemnity as provided for in the Constitution and as permitted by the Companies Act 1993.

The existence of the indemnities and insurance is disclosed in Oceania's interest register.
